Reaching For The Stars

Life's accomplishments have much greater meaning and purpose when we are able to share the vision, workload, and results with others. Over the last decade of Harold Martin School history, one of our most successful collaborative efforts has been the formation and success of our Reaching For The Stars enrichment program, which is held for six Friday afternoons in the spring and has grown from one science club to as many as 12 courses, spanning more than half of our school population plus scores of community and HMS staff volunteers.

Elsewhere is a note from Nina Forziati, our new coordinator as it is time to look for volunteers for the 07-08 version of Reaching For The Stars. Please consider donating your time as either a course advisor or helper. Feel free to ask Nina or me if you have questions.

Have a wonderful weekend.

Sincerely,

Bill Carozza, Principal

FROM THE SCHOOL NURSE

I would like to remind parents that any nuts in shells are not allowed in the building due to the danger to students and staff allergic to nuts and the difficulty in cleaning after these are eaten.

Also, both P.E. teacher, Mrs Henderson, and myself would advise parents not to have children wear crocs to school, especially for physical education. We have had many injuries to ankles and feet with crocs and clogs since the school year has started. Mrs Henderson will not let students participate if they are wearing crocs or clogs because of safety issues. We have spoken with students that sneakers or other shoes with more support are best for school.

Reaching for the Stars

The time has come to begin preparing for the upcoming HMS Enrichment Program, Reaching for the Stars. This program relies a great deal on parent volunteers. We need people to lead classes and those to assist. Do you have a special talent or hobby you would be willing to share? Maybe you would just like to help out with a particular class? Do you have computer skills to offer? Childcare is provided for volunteers and we need help there too! If you were involved last year and would like to continue, let me know.

Being involved in Reaching for the Stars is a fun and rewarding experience. If you are interested in any volunteer opportunity in this program, please email hmsenrich@hopkintonschools.org or call me at 746-4239. Thank you in advance. I'm looking forward to another successful year!

PUBLISHING CENTER

The Publishing Center at HMS needs your help. We are looking for a coordinator for 08-09- someone who can train this year. Also, for this year, we need an editor for third graders' stories. Please contact Vicki Baronas at baronas35@tds.net if you are interested.
