Parent Flash

It's my favorite day of the school year...the first day of school. You see, for a Principal, it's a time to hang out with students, teachers, and parents (we had a record crowd for our PTA sponsored Coffee with Carozza yesterday) and enjoy the positive attitudes that ring throughout the building. Some observations:

- Heard in the hallway from a third grader: "I had so much fun today it felt like I was only in school for an hour!"
- I didn't have one negative comment from a parent entering through our new drop off procedure and everyone paid attention to safety. Well, it didn't hurt that Officer Pecora was on hand.
- So many parents wanted to see their child off on the first day of school that traffic was tied up all the way to the Police Station on Rte. 103.
- Teachers on the normally sweltering second floor noticed a "cool" temperature change with the new ventilation system and windows.

- In general, students and teachers were truly engaged in teaching and learning from the get go.

I encourage you to check out my Principal's Pages on the HMS web site at:

As always, let me know how I can make your family's experience at Harold Martin School as strong as possible.

Welcome back!

WELCOME BACK to lots of familiar faces and many new faces. We're looking forward to another great year at TSNH.

Our first week of school, which, as you know, consists of only two days, is a getting-to-know-you time for both students and staff. Watch the weekly Parent Flash for a listing of our daily activities.

As we begin our 25th year of service to the children (and their Parents) of Hopkinton, we welcome back:

- Linda Ottery, co-founder and Executive Direct
- Mary Ann Lakevicius, who has served faithfully and well as the Program Director for the past ten years
- Pat Golec, chief cook and bottle washer, literally, who begins her 5th year with the Program
- Max Lanocha, a much-loved HHS senior

- Leah Horgan, a former TSNH student herself, now a HHS junior
- We also welcome JoEllen McCaffrey, a Hopkinton resident, as our new Assistant Director in charge of crafts and games.

Stop by and check us out! We have lots of after-school fun!

For more information about TSNH or to register your child, contact Linda Ottery at tsnh@comcast.net or 529-2186.
